

Tune In to See an HHC Employee Compete on Food Network's Chopped

Dinah Surh, a Senior Executive Administrator at Morrisania Diagnostic and Treatment Center, will appear on the Food Network's hit show Chopped on Tuesday, February 4.

Surh will be one of four home cooks competing for $10,000 prize on the show. Competitors on Chopped are challenged to turn ingredients of three mystery baskets into dishes that are judged for creativity, presentation, and taste by a panel of celebrity chefs.

In the first round, Surh and the other contestants will try to impress the judges with chicken tenderloin appetizers. They will work against the clock to create a hanger steak dish in the entrée round and deal with two very unusual ingredients in the dessert round.

The episode will also feature footage of Surh at Morrisania and at home. Tune in tomorrow night to support your HHC colleague!
